The turn of the 20th century saw the Art Nouveau movement flourish across the arts, giving way, among other things, to some of the most beguiling and breathtakingly decorative architecture in European history. The rapid pace of technological, philosophical and political developments was unprecedented and the combination of new building materials on offer plus a

Still, they all retained a distinct turn-of-the-century art nouveau style. Unlike the occasional visiting architect from Europe who would create a singular extravaganza, Istanbul Greek architects were meeting the needs of the local bourgeois, and in this sense, their work must be examined in greater depth, as it will reveal many social aspects of life in Istanbul around 1900.
