Rehashing it is when you repeat the full meaning of what they have written but do not repeat any of the phrasing or wording they have used. We do this in many areas of writing from making something easier to understand for a different audience or simply to get rid of plagiarism or copying issues. But reformulating is not something many writers are good at, many fail with plag prevention as they end up repeating large amounts of the original text or they will simply not maintain the original ...

The first thing we do is to substitute the original words in the article with synonyms. That is a very common and popular rewording method, and that's how most tools work. You simply replace words and phrases with similar ones. However, while this way may seem like an easy one, it takes some knowledge.
