The Hidden Light of Objects is a beautifully written collection of short stories set for the most part in the Middle East. Many of the stories are connected. Sometimes it is a familial connection that spans several decades and other times it is through shared references to mundane objects that hold memories and secrets.

The Hidden Light of Objects by Mai Al-Nakib

"Mai Al-Nakib's The Hidden Light of Objects brings forth both the light and the shadows of the contemporary Middle East in clean-edged prose that startles us, not with sudden violence or polemic, but with the ineluctable force of human desire. Kuwait itself becomes a character, full of contradictions, in this multifaceted set of stories and vignettes.
