The Quickie

By far, "The Quickie" was the very best book. The twists and turns capture the reader from the beginning. Having read nearly all of James Patterson's books, this was my favorite.

The Quickie is written in very short chapters so it made it a fast read. I got hooked in the first part of the book but then became a little bored when "covering up" became a little too effortless for the protagonist.

Jennifer Jason Leigh does a fine job as "the quickie" and Dean Stockwell plays Michael with his usual understated style and here it is right on the mark. Leslie Anne Warren plays Oleg's mother, an aging diva who still remains a diva. This is nicely done. If you enjoy quirky films with a lot of atmosphere, try this one.

The Quickie This book was excellent. Another hit for James Patterson. Mary Stuart Masterson's narration was outstanding. The story moved along at a fast pace with a lot of twists, turns and surprises, and kept my interest the whole time. I would recommend this book to anyone, and, in fact, have done so.
